

Washington Airport Management Association

Board Code of Ethics

Adopted by the Board of Directors February 11, 2014

As a member of the Washington Airport Management Association Board I will:

1. Represent the interests of all people served by this organization, and not favor special interests inside or outside of this Organization.
2. Not use my service on this Board for my own personal advantage or for the advantage of my friends or supporters.
3. Keep privileged information confidential.
4. Approach all Board issues with an open mind, prepared to make the best decisions for everyone involved.
5. Do nothing to violate the trust of those who elected or appointed me to the Board or of those we serve.
6. Focus my efforts on the mission of this Organization and not on my personal goals.
7. Never exercise authority as a WAMA Board member except when acting in a meeting with the full Board or as I am delegated by this Board.
8. In all matters before the Board, avoid actions that may lead to an actual or perceived conflict of interest. Disclose to the Board any matter that could give rise to a conflict of interest and accede to the determination of the Board regarding action to be taken to avoid the potential conflict.
9. Conduct all my Association activities without discrimination among individuals in violation of state/federal law or on the basis of personal characteristics other than ability, performance or documented qualifications.
